Dear Kathy DiFiore,

Thank you for your kind letter and for sharing your thoughts, your concern and your touch with God's less fortunate.

Today God loves the world so much He gives you, He gives me to be His love, His compassion in the world of today. God's love and our love is but a 'giving' until it hurts.

This brings you my prayers and wishes. May this Holy Easter fill you with special graces and blessings of the Risen Lord.

Keep the joy of the Risen Lord ever burning in your heart as your strength and share this joy with all you meet by your thoughtful love and humble service.

God love you and keep you - be always in you so that you may grow to be His love and compassion in the world..

*God bless you
